

COMPLAINTS TO THE BBC: SEPTEMBER 2008

Offence - General	1
Insufficient Coverage	1
Offence to Religious Feelings	1
Standards of Interviewing/Presentation	1

The BBC answered over 10,000 complaints from the audience during September 2008. These ranged from a small number of complaints about potentially serious breaches of editorial guidelines through to a much larger collection of views about programme content and scheduling. The key themes which emerged are as follows:

Offence - General

Some people complained in response to the EastEnders storyline of child abuse, which they felt was inappropriate.

Insufficient Coverage

The Paralympics 2008 prompted complaints, where some people felt that there had been insufficient coverage of the tournament in comparison with the Olympics 2008 coverage.

Offence to Religious Feelings

A number of people were unhappy with the EastEnders storyline where Masood Ahmed was shown breaking his Ramadan fast.

Standards of Interviewing/Presentation

Some people complained about Eurovision Dance Contest, as they were unhappy with the commentary during the programme.
